There's a human toll when a beloved school shuts its doors.

Nearly 100 Louisiana public schools have shut down since 2020 as population decline and a proliferation of alternative schooling options leave the state's traditional schools with fewer and fewer students.

"Our newsroom continues to expand as we cover what's happening in local communities across Louisiana, while also taking on ambitious statewide reporting projects. All that is only possible because of the support of readers like you."
