RESOLUTION NO. B-17549

A RESOLUTION COMMENDING THOMAS BRETT AND JEAN MAY BRETT FOR THEIR GENEROUS DONATION TO DOLLY PARTON'S IMAGINATION LIBRARY, EFFECTIVELY EXPANDING THE LITERACY PROGRAM TO BENEFIT CHILDREN THROUGHOUT THE ENTIRE CITY OF KENNER.

WHEREAS, the City Council for the City of Kenner recognizes that Thomas Brett and Jean May Brett have made a profound and lasting impact on early childhood education for our community's youth; and the Council for the City of Kenner recognizes that Thomas and Jean May Brett have made a profound impact on education for our youth; and

WHEREAS, their deep-rooted belief in the personal responsibility to improve the world around them is brilliantly reflected through their continuous civic contributions; and

WHEREAS, Dolly Parton's Imagination Library is a renowned early literacy initiative that promotes a lifelong love of reading by providing new, age-appropriate books to children each month from birth until the age of five entirely free of charge, regardless of their family's income; and

WHEREAS, the significant financial donation made by Thomas Brett and Jean May Brett to Dolly Parton's Imagination Library has successfully established the programmatic framework necessary to expand this initiative to the entire City of Kenner; and

WHEREAS, this exceptional act of philanthropy will directly empower thousands of local families, fostering critical early vocabulary development, cognitive growth, and school readiness for Kenner's youngest residents.

THE COUNCIL FOR THE CITY OF KENNER HEREBY RESOLVES:

SECTION ONE: The City of Kenner hereby extends its highest commendation, utmost gratitude, and official recognition to Thomas Brett and Jean May Brett for their transformative donation to Dolly Parton's Imagination Library and their stellar commitment to municipal youth literacy.

SECTION TWO: This Council officially celebrates the launch of Dolly Parton's Imagination Library citywide, acknowledging it as a milestone achievement in public education advocacy enabled by private grace.

SECTION THREE: That a copy of this resolution be officially presented to Thomas Brett and Jean May Brett as a permanent token of appreciation from the citizens of Kenner.
